5. The United States has established the requisite nexus between the Subject Property and Firearm and the Defendant’s offenses.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

6. 9. The Defendant shall hereby forfeit, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), the following specific property (hereinafter referred to as the “Firearm”):

10. The Defendant having agreed to the immediate forfeiture of the Subject Property and Firearm, this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture is final as to the Defendant and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. This order remains preliminary as to third parties until the ancillary proceeding is concluded.

11. The United States is authorized to seize the Subject Property, whether held by the defendant or a third party; conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture; and to commence proceedings that comply with any statutes and federal rules governing third party rights, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

12. In accordance with the direction provided by the Attorney General and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(6), the United States shall publish notice of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture and send notice to any person who reasonably appears to be a potential claimant with standing to contest the forfeiture in the ancillary proceeding. Publication must take place as described in Supplemental Rule G(4)(a)(iii) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and may be by any means described in Supplemental Rule G(4)(a)(iv). Publication is unnecessary if any exception in Supplemental Rule G(4)(a)(i) applies.

13. The notice may be sent in accordance with Supplemental Rules G(4)(b)(iii)-(v) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

14. Any person, other than the Defendant, filing a petition to contest the forfeiture of specific property, must sign the petition under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

15. If a third party files a petition asserting an interest in the Subject Property, the court will conduct an ancillary proceeding.

16. When the ancillary proceeding ends, the court will enter a final order of forfeiture by amending the preliminary order as necessary to account for any third-party rights. If no third party files a timely petition, this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture will become the Final Order of Forfeiture.

17. The United States shall have clear title to the Subject Property and Firearm following the court's disposition of all third party interests, or if no third party petitions are timely filed, following the expiration of the period provided by statute for the filing of third party petitions.

18. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this order; and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim P. 32.2(e).
